MISS LAURA JOHNSON

Dedication

We, the Class of '59, dedicate this annual to you, Miss Johnson.

Although you have taught other languages, you are best known to us as our French teacher and the author of our textbook FRENCH FOR THE MODERN WORLD.

Because of your work to promote better understanding between France and the United States, the Palmes Academiques Award, given to you by the French Government, is well deserved. We too have benefited from this interest through your leadership in the American Field Service Program here at Wisconsin High School.

Miss Johnson, we as a class feel especially close to you since you will be graduating with us. Because of your untiring help and enthusiasm as both a teacher and class advisor, we are proud to dedicate this annual to you.

Go, you Badgers!

"Harvest Huddle" was the theme chosen for the Homecoming this year. The gym was decorated with the traditional pictures of the football team along with murals depicting the fall season.

Music was furnished by the Feather Rhythm Five.

Philo and Hi-Y, working together, proved themselves a successful combination.

The dance was held on October 24 after the football game with Monona Grove. In spite of the heart-breaking defeat in the afternoon the students managed a cheerful air at the dance.

Because the dance was held on February 7, only one week before Valentine's Day, the Philo girls chose the name "Queen of Hearts" for their dance. The decorations consisted of characters from ALICE IN WONDERLAND and of hearts of all sizes and colors. A gigantic Cheshire Cat made of chicken wire and tissue paper with large blinking red eyes stood on one wall of the gym. Everyone swayed and swirled to the music of the Cliches.

With 19 lettermen returning, Coach Metzen was looking forward to an outstanding season. And the Badger Preps did start the year with a bang. Traveling to Edgerton for the season's opener, the squad turned back the Crimson Tide 19-0.

The following week Metzen's Marauders shipped the Stoughton Vikings, 31-0. Middleton put up a good fight, but the Preps ground out two touchdowns for a 12-0 white-wash. It was the "hard rocks" third straight shutout. The Fort Atkinson offense proved too much for the Preps, and Fort was the victor 14-0. The score of the Monona Grove game (21-13) is not indicative play. The Preps dominated the game but lost on fluke plays by the opposition. The team split their last two games, beating Monroe 21-7 and losing to Jefferson 12-0.

The players elected John Marquart and Ted Groves co-captains. Ted also was the team's Most Valuable Player.

Named to the All-Badger Conference teams were: Center Craig Smith, Guard Ted Groves, Tackle Tad Dunn, End Tom Link, Linebacker Greg Isaksen, and Quarterback Dick Smith.

The 1953 season marked Wisconsin High's third year of cross country competition. Each year the team has shown progress, and this year's team placed ninth in the state meet.

The Preps were paced by captain Joe Swanson with a pair of first places and sophomore Fritz Kaeser with three second and a third in dual meet competition. Fritz was lost to the team for the state meet because of a kidney infection.

The squad's most improved runner was Rob Whitford, the captain-elect. Eight foot striker Fritz Kaeser showed himself to be one of the most promising runners in the area. Major letters were awarded to Kaeser and Swanson. J-V awards went to Don Zilman, Rob Whitford, Doug Clark, Pete Wausack, Kevin Gould, Butch Wessels, and John Carrier.

This year Wisconsin High was represented by two curling rinks. The Rundell rink, skipped by Jim, consisted of Lee Woldenberg, Bruce Benedict, and Bob "Big Yo" Yelton. The other rink was skipped by Tom Resan. Other members of Resan's rink were Mike Schran, Doug Strong, and Charles Biss.

The Rundell rink won the second event in the Madison Inter-High School Bonspiel. They also tied for first place in the Madison High School Curling League with a record of seven wins and two losses.

Both rinks participated in the bonspiels at Wausau, Poynette, and Madison.

Basketball

The Wisconsin High basketball team for this year was a sleeping giant that was slow to rise, but when it did, it showed real power. The team started fast, winning four of its first five games. Then the ax fell. The Preps were solidly trounced by Fort Atkinson, Monona Grove, Monroe, and Jefferson. This ended the first half of the conference with a two win and five loss record. Leading the team through this "era of darkness" was senior forward, Don Center, a stand-out in both scoring and rebounding.

The second round of the season saw the Preps come alive and bounce Edgerton 67-58. Cal Hoge, Nebraska transferee, hit 11 points in only two quarters. He was assisted by veteran Dick Smith. The Preps dropped two conference games by tight scores, and then things began to happen. Unsuspectingly, powerful Fort Atkinson came to the fieldhouse on February 5. The Metzen men cut loose, and featuring the shooting and defense work of Pete Wolfe dropped Fort 61-41. The next week the team was set back by a last quarter rally of Monona Grove. Again the following week the fieldhouse was the scene of a slaughter. Monroe, ranked number five in the state and the eventual Badger Conference Champion, was the victim of the Preps. Pete Heebink played, in the words of Coach Metzen, "One of the best defensive games I have ever seen," in holding the area's leading scorer, Dave Grahms, to 5 points. The score was 51-47, in favor of Wisconsin High.

The strong second half round of conference play was sparked by a real veteran, senior Dick Smith, who led the team to its fourth place finish.

Junior Varsity

Plagued with the lack of a big scorer and a weak team defense, the Junior Varsity waded halfway through the season in mediocrity. Shortly after New Year's Day, Coach Jerry Herling, a Wisconsin High alumnus, called up several freshmen to join the squad. Among these were standouts John Fenske, Bill Treichel, Mike Reiersen, and Kenji Higuchi. Coach Herling expertly mixed these youngsters with prize sophomores, Bud Center, Chuck Blake, and Bob Swanson. Added to this group were a couple of veterans, Monroe Woollard and Franz Altpeter.

The newly assembled team clicked as the J-V squad went on to make a good showing during the rest of the season.

The J-V first stringers: B. Center, M. Woollard, B. Swanson, A. Felt, and C. Blake.

Wrestling

The wrestling season at Wisconsin High was pre-determined by fans and writers as a rebuilding year for the Preps. Gone were the Hamel brothers and their compatriots who had led the team to high places in the state three years in a row.

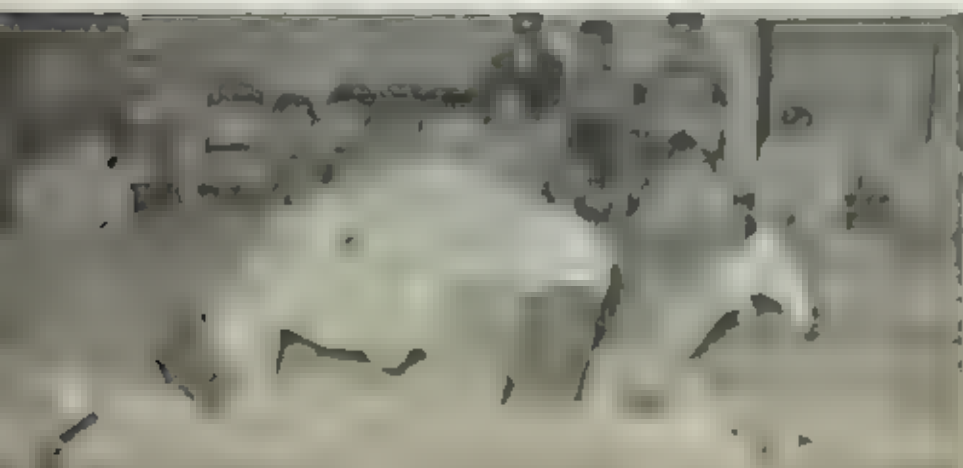

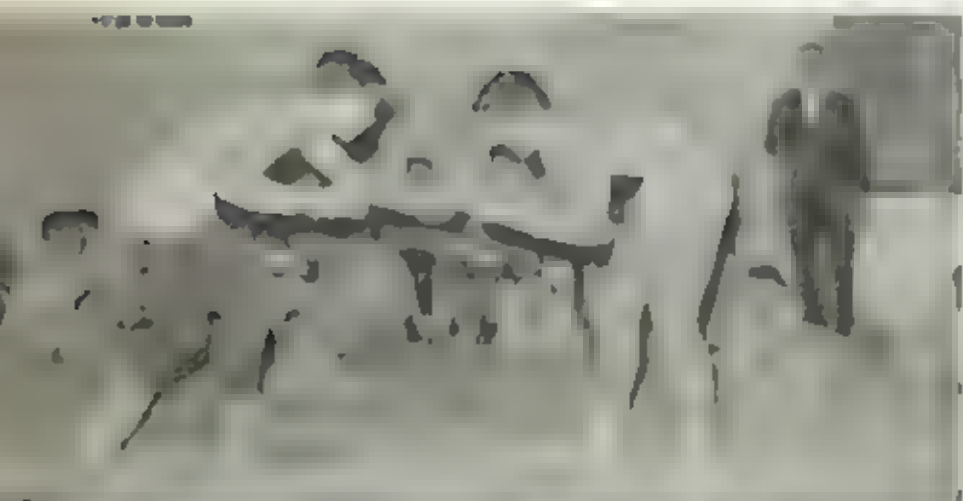

Under the eye of Don Bartkowiak, formerly head wrestling coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, the team began a gradual building program. They elected Tom Link, a veteran, their captain. With the guidance of Coach Bartkowiak and Captain Link, the team recorded a dual meet record of 4-7.

Things began to move in the city meet. Wisconsin High placed Lewis, Isaksen, Mack, Link, and Treichel in the finals and placed third in the meet. The following week the team surprised everyone by jumping off to a lead in the Badger Conference Meet. The team lost only to Stoughton by placing second. Link was champion at 165 pounds in both the city and the conference meets. Treichel was runner-up in both meets.

The sectional meet saw Treichel and Link both qualifying for the state with fine victories. Treichel defeated Rod Goers of Lake Mills (21 wins - 0 losses) in order to get to the finals.

In the state meet Treichel lost 3-1 in his first match, and Link won his first match. The same night Link was eliminated on a 5-2 decision.

Major letters were awarded to Dave Olson, Elmer Beale, Glen Lewis, Pete Stedman, Dave Cohen, Greggar Isaksen, John Mack, Chuck Bridgman, Tom Link, Chip Treichel, Charles Buss, and Bob Schacht.

Volleyball

Wisconsin High is traditionally one of the most powerful volleyball teams in the state, and this year is no exception. Armed with seven lettermen from last year's team, the Preps are quite formidable.

Lettermen are Whit Revell, Oz Marshall, Dick Schacht, Mike Riley, Al Felt, Greg Isaksen, and Lee Woldenberg.

Coach Metzen is also looking forward to help from sophomores Glenn Lewis and John Mack.

Golf

With only three lettermen returning, this year's team lacks experience. The lettermen are Deane Adams, Mike Waters, and Craig "Gootch" Smith. Waters is one of the most promising sophomores in the state, and both Adams and Smith are four year veterans.

Additional help is expected from underclassmen Dave Olson, Charles Buss, Mike Reterson, and Steve Plater.

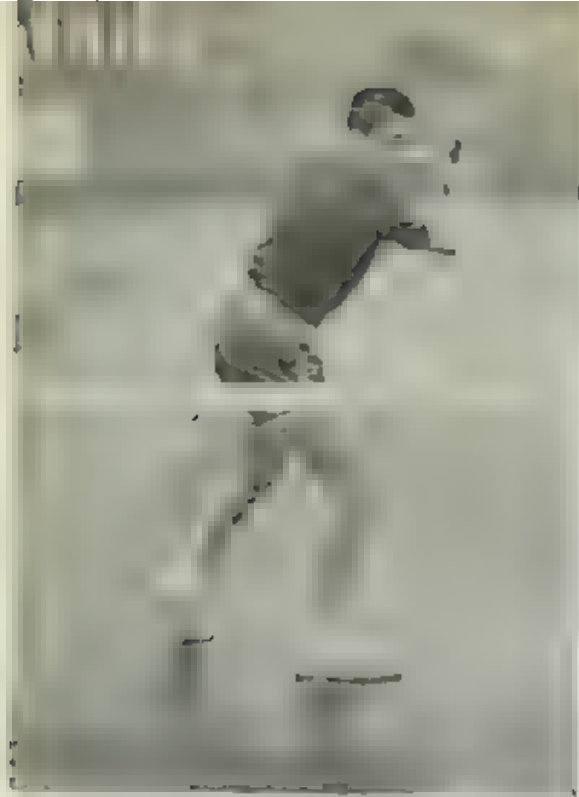

This year's team will compete in the Janesville Invitational, City Meet, Badger Conference, and the W.I.A.A. State Meet.

Tennis

The 1959 Wisconsin High tennis team boasts only three letter winners of last year's Badger Conference Championship squad. Those three are Lee Woldenberg, Dick Smith, and Bruce Benedict.

Smith, a four year veteran, leads the group. Benedict and Woldenberg are also very strong players and will be counted on for fine performances. Additional help is expected to come from Oz Marshall, Don Center, and Al Scheffer, all of the Senior class. Others to be watched are Junior, Monroe Woollard, and John Fenske, Freshman.

Track

JOE

TOM

This year's track season promises to be an interesting one. With only seven lettermen returning, Coach Don Bartkowiak faces what might appear to be a bleak season. However, the picture is not as bad as it looks. Several seniors who have been with the team in previous years have rejoined the team.

In the dashes, the Preps will feature lettermen Stu Quisling, Tom Link, and Dick Schacht. Others that will be of much help are Tad Dunn and Bob Fulton. Top hurdler on the squad is sophomore Bob Swanson, who is expected to get help from Cal Hugel in the high hurdles.

Middle and long distance runners will be led by veteran Joe Swanson and Sophomore Fritz Kaeser, respectively. Assists will be received from Rob Whitford, John Marquart, John Carrier, Bruce Schwengel, and Don Zillman.

Field event specialists are Tad Dunn and Pete Pauley - shot put, Chip Treichel - discus, Cal Hugel, Whit Revell and Dick Smith - pole vault, and Pete Heebank - broad jump.

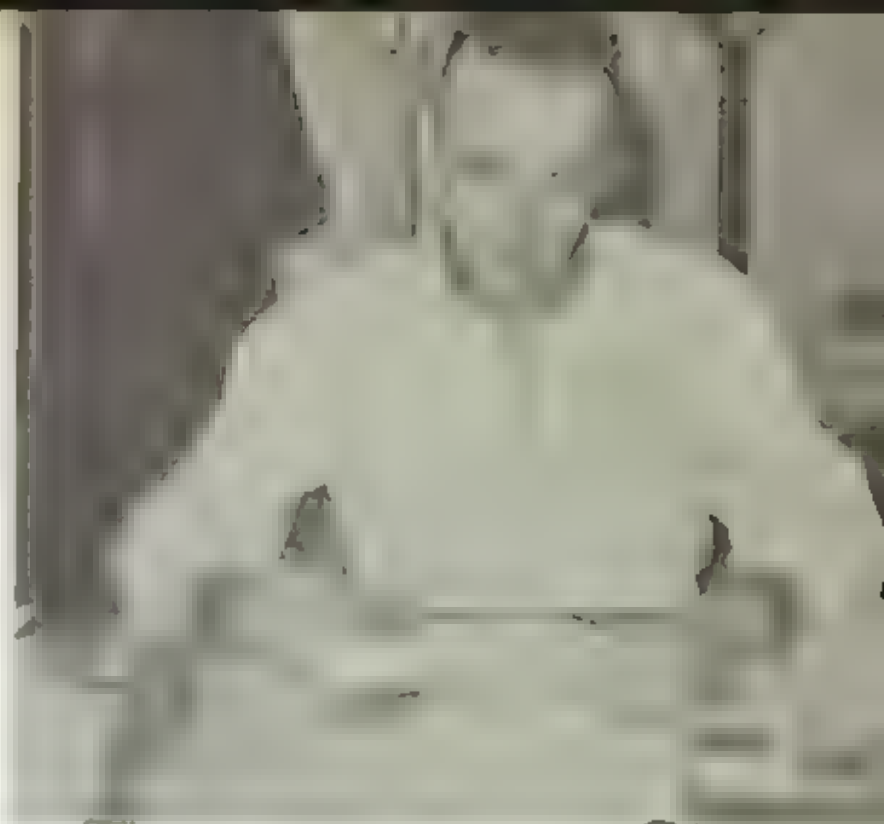

Coaches

Wisconsin High was again this year privileged to have an extremely fine coaching staff, led by athletic director Hal Metzen.

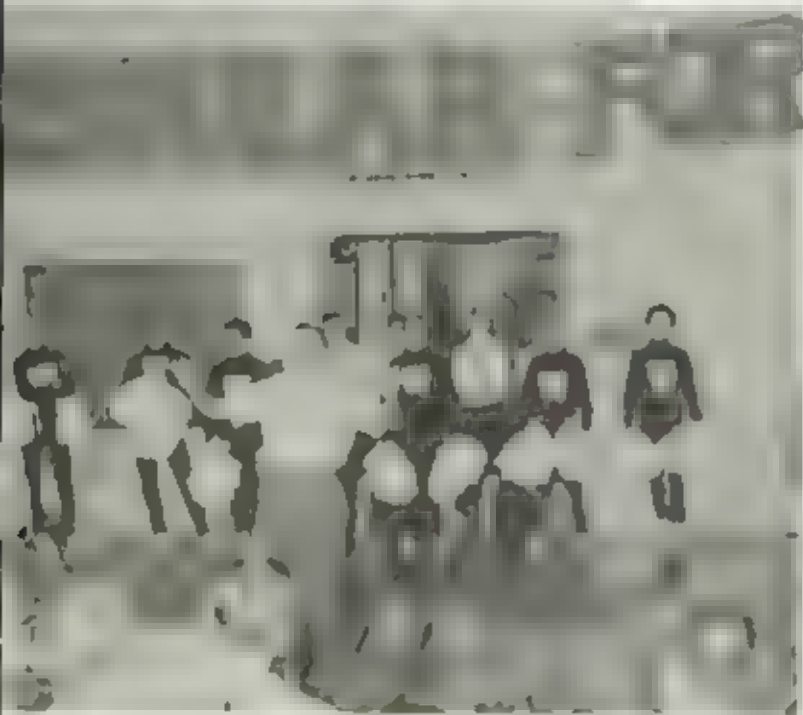

Football chores were handled by Ed Goss, Chuck Lindeberg, and Gene Melvin along with Coach Metzen. The Junior Varsity's mentor was a Badger Prep alumnus, Jerry Herling.

Head coach of wrestling, Don Bartkowiak, did a fine rebuilding job and had a successful season. Dave Medenwald worked with both the cross country team and the freshman basketball team.

The athletes and students of Wisconsin High are grateful for the fine leadership and inspiration shown by these men.

COACH NETZEN

Managers

Jerry "Wheeler" Mitchell heads up this year's corps of Managers. Jerry reigns supreme in a 7' by 15' cubbyhole located in the basement and known as the managers' room.

Taping wrists and ankles, fixing equipment, and keeping charts of all types are just a few of the numerous chores attended to by the managers.

Mitchell's number two man is "Bits" Cohen, a five year veteran of managing. Also assisting are Rob Whitford, Tom Lorenz, Bob Schacht, Dave Kinnamon, and George Schlotthauer.

Game Day: Dave Kinnamon assists Head Manager Jerry in taping the wrist of Ted Groves. Assistants George Schlotthauer and Tom Lorenz check records.

G. A. A.

This year G. A. A. was headed by Miss Astrid Frolich, a graduate student of the University of Wisconsin. She has done a fine job in leading the girls in their after-school sports. Touch football, volleyball, bowling, and softball were the highlights in G. A. A. this year. Tournaments were held in volleyball, basketball, and softball. This gave the girls wonderful experience in team play and sportsmanship. This year G. A. A., with its many varied activities, had many participants, all of whom enjoyed the season very much.

... And it's a beautiful two-handed set shot!

O.K. - where's the ball?

Varsity Cheerleaders

The six blue and white clad cheerleaders that were so active at football and basketball games helped to keep the school pep and spirit high this year. They were Gretchen Huebner, Sue Heebink, Jeanne Field, Kathy Allegar, Ann Haberman, and Karen Herman. Since only Gretchen and Sue will be graduating, four of the cheerleaders will return next year, looking forward to a victorious year.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

This year there has been a new addition to our Varsity Cheerleading Section, the Junior Varsity Squad. The finalists out of the 9th and 10th grade girls trying out were Sarah Stedman, Joan Wilkie, Julie Cohen, and Martha Lenz. Credit should be given to these four peppy cheerleaders for getting more fans to attend the earlier JV game.

"Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset,
two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes.
No reward is offered for they are gone forever."

Horace Mann

At Wisconsin High time has quickly passed as we studied, worked, planned, and had fun every day of our high school years. Now we pause to look back on our years at Wisconsin High before we enter a new stage in our lives.

We remember the fun and work that went into our Junior Prom, our class projects, our studies, and our extracurricular activities.

In years to come, we will look back fondly on our experiences at Wisconsin High and remember the good times we had. For these carefree, meaningful years we will always be indebted to you, Wisconsin High.

The Class of 1959

KING DICK SMITH

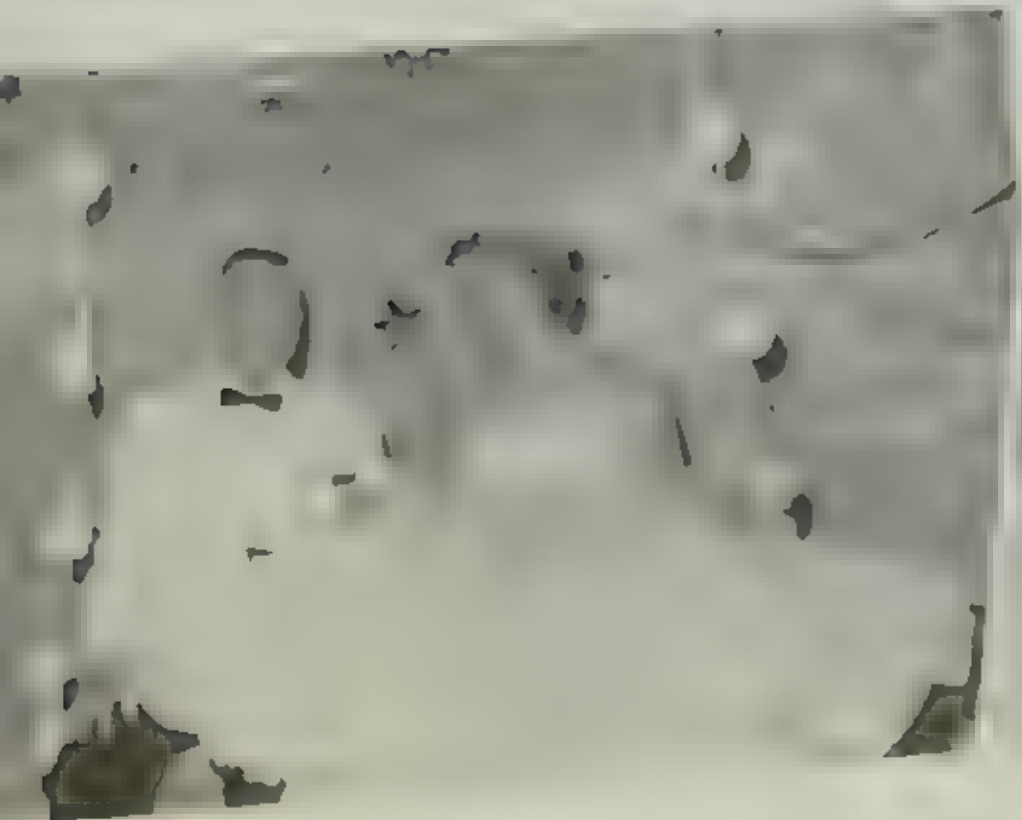

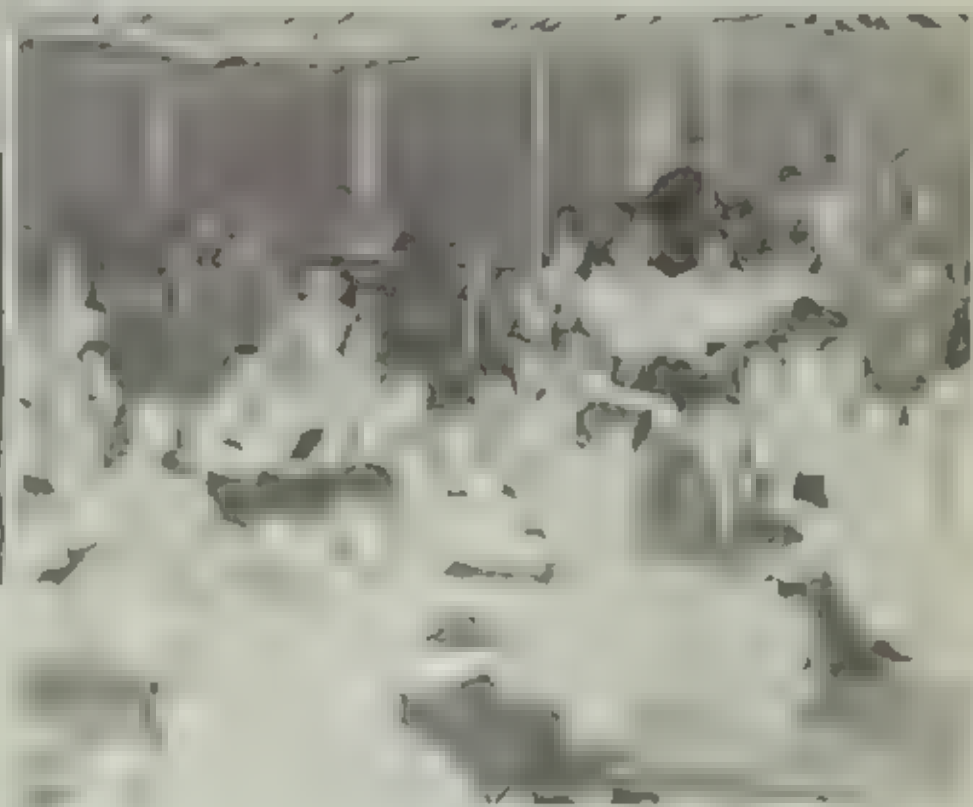

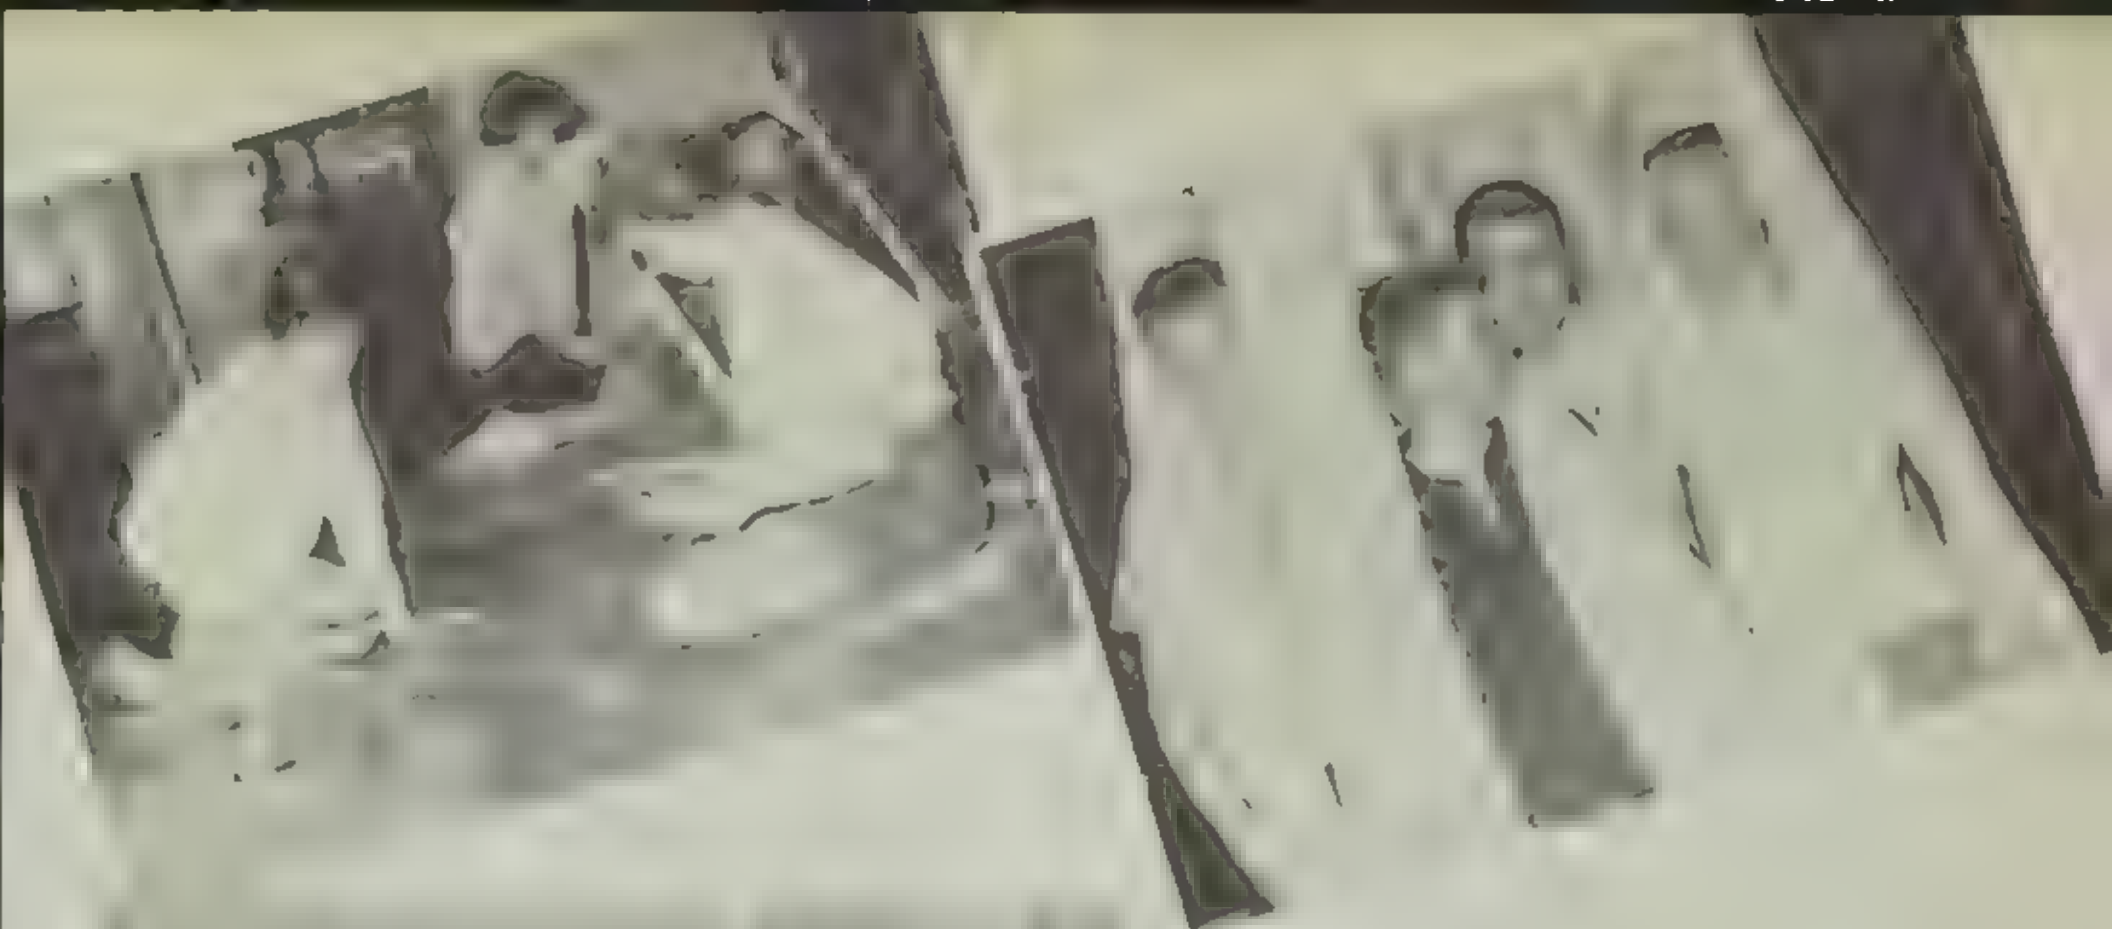

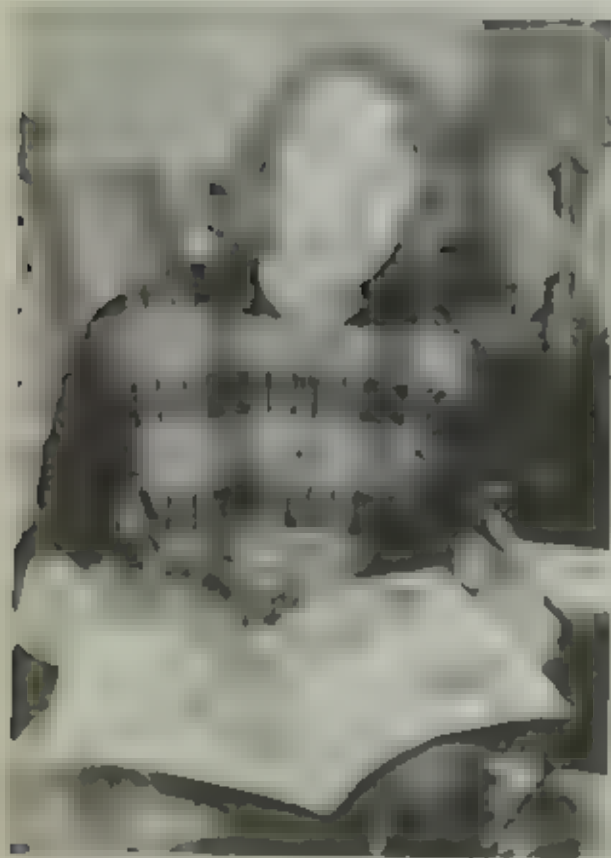

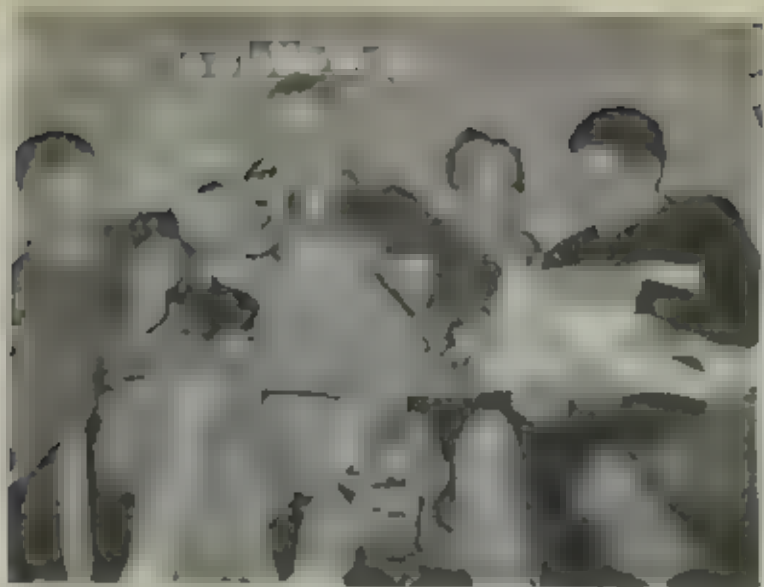

QUEEN SUE HEEBINK

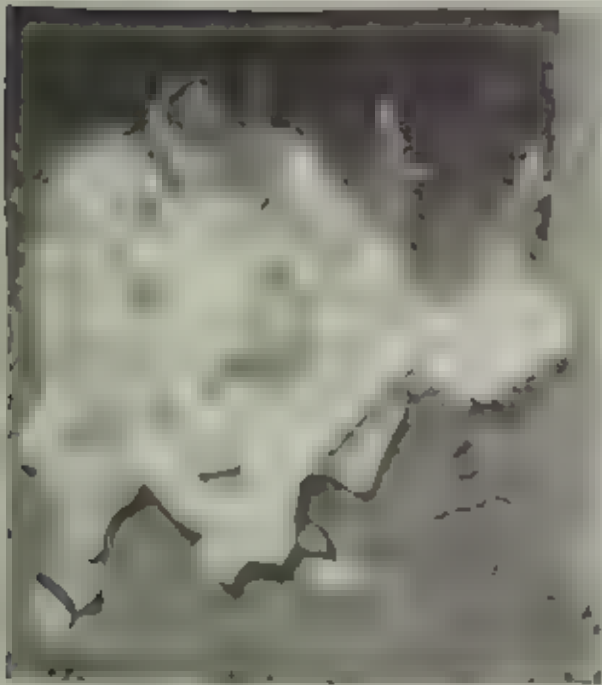

Reaching for the Stars

Junior Prom 1958, the climax of many hours of planning, working, and arranging, had at last arrived. An hour before they were scheduled to leave for the coke-tail party at King Dick's house, many juniors dragged themselves home after performing the almost impossible task, transforming the WHS gym into 'heaven' to carry out the theme "Reaching for the Stars." Woven across the ceiling were strips of aqua and white crepe paper. In one corner was a swing, which appeared to be floating on fluffy white clouds built especially for the king and queen. After a few hours spent in this celestial paradise, everyone moved on to a party at Queen Sue's house and then, of course, to the slumber parties. None of us will forget that night we spent "Reaching for the Stars."

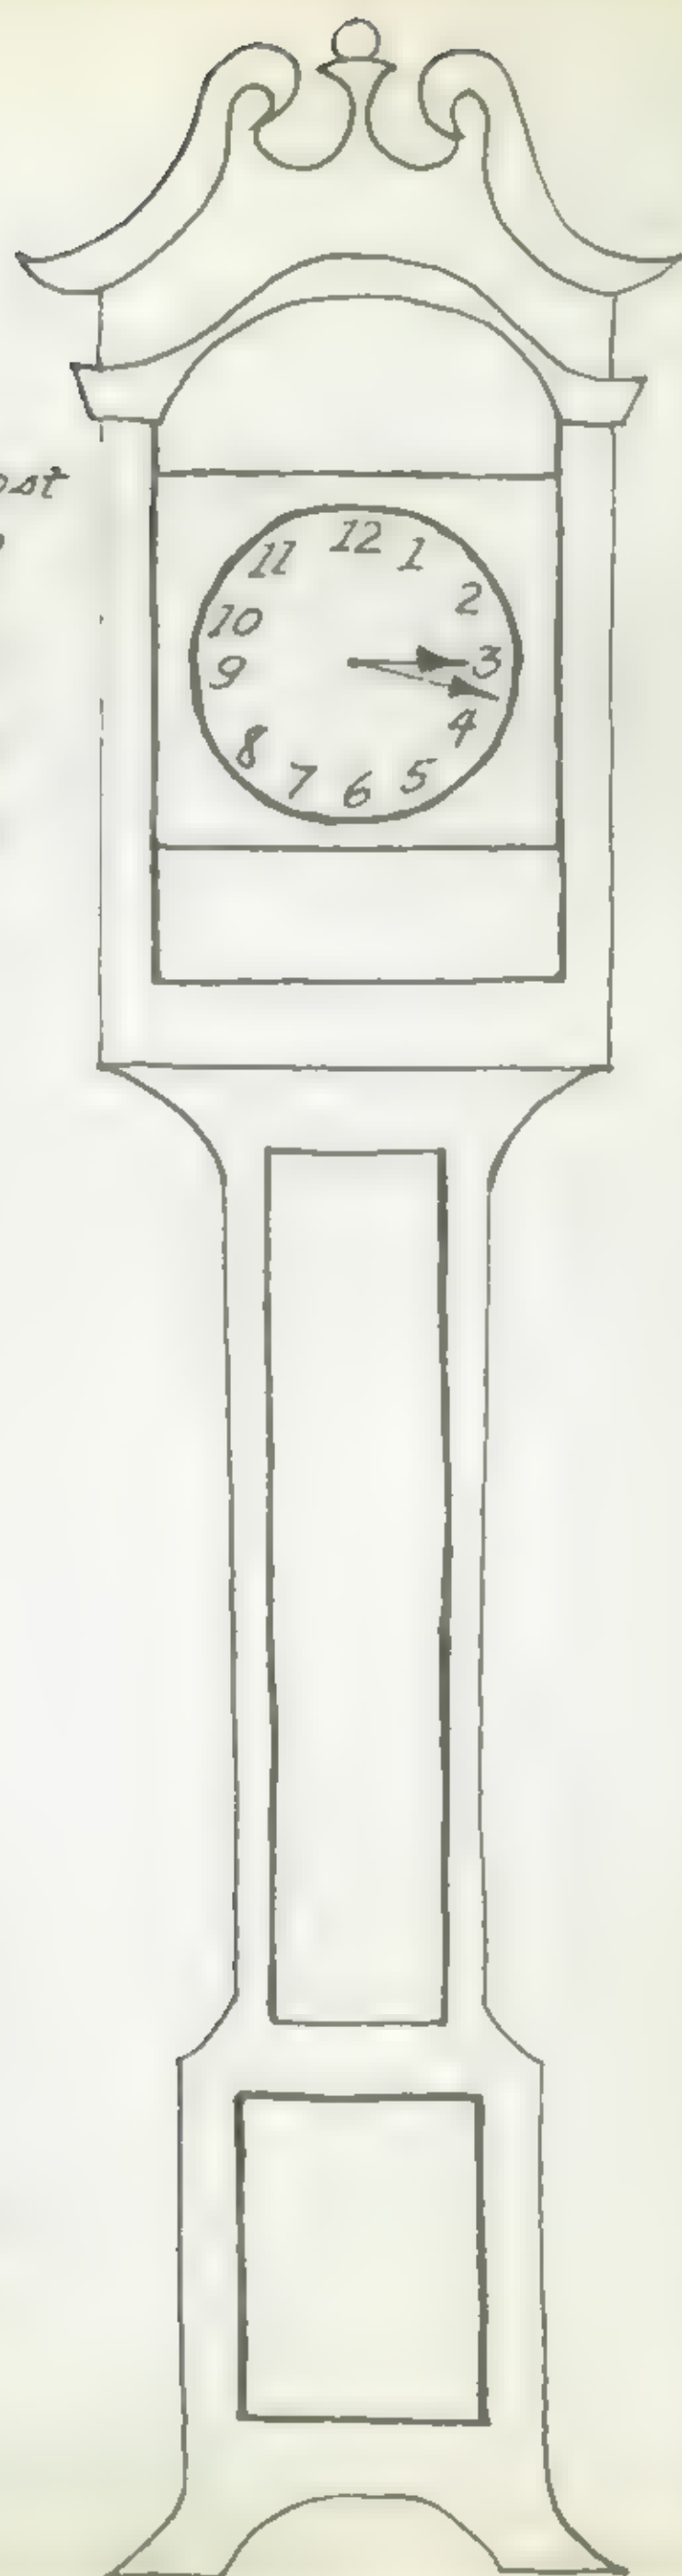

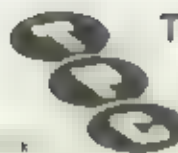

*Time is like a fashionable host
That slightly shakes his parting guest by the hand;
And with his arms outstretch'd,
as he would fly,
grasps in the corner: welcome
ever smiles,
And farewell goes out sighing*
